

Elizabeth Huwald,
Lifelong Resident,
Died Last Friday

Miss Elizabeth J. Huwald, 81, lifelong resident of this city, died in St. Mary's hospital, Streator, at 9:10 p. m. last Friday. In failing health for the past two years, she had been hospitalized since last November.

The body was brought to the Thierry funeral home where visitation was held Sunday evening. Funeral services were held from the funeral home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. John Roberts, pastor of the United Presbyterian church officiating. Burial was in Wenona cemetery. Pallbearers were Edward Harter, Wayne Wright, J. A. Kurrle, H. B. Axline, Willard Stewart and Edward Donnelly.

Miss Huwald was born in Wenona on August 29, 1881, the daughter of William and Johanna (Sipple) Huwald. She attended Wenona schools and for many years was employed by the Jones Millinery store, later holding the position of bookkeeper and secretary with the Coppin ice cream factory in Wenona. During World War II she worked at the Seneca ship yards.

She leaves a sister, Miss Minnie Huwald of Wenona and two nieces. A sister and four brothers preceded her in death.

Miss Huwald was gifted with a delightful sense of humor and found life rich and rewarding. Those who knew her well or slightly will mourn the loss of a truly gracious person.

Among those from a distance attending the funeral services were Mrs. Julian Woolf, Mr. and Mrs. John Fritsch, Jr., and Mrs. Dorothy Fritsch of Libertyville; Mrs. Charlien Kramer, Mrs. Herbert Nelson, Mrs. Carl Zuttermeister, Chicago; Mrs. Elsie Downey and Louise Love, Bloomington; Mrs. Pauline Huwald, Spring Valley.
