FUNERAL SERVICES WEDNESDAY FOR MRS. GEORGE LOVE

Mrs. George T. Love who has been in frail health for several years, died at her home here about midnight on Sunday. Mrs. Love, 82 years old, was the widow of Dr. George Love who died May 1, 1939.

Visitation was at the family home from 3 o'clock Tuesday.

A short service at the Love home preceded funeral service at 2 o'clock at St. John's Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Harry Dovenspike. Mrs. George Lambourn sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "Softly Now The Light of Day". She was accompanied by Mrs. Glada Jenkins. Pallbearers were two nephews Joseph Seibel of Streator and Eldo Worsley of Mendota, also George Ball, Edwin Howe, Everett Nelson and Phillip Pickard. Burial was in Wenona cemetery.

Relatives and friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Misses Elizabeth and Gertrude Bostater of Chicago, Mrs. Curtis Koos and Mrs. Charles Sheldon of Skokie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Selter of Eureka, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Worsely, David and Jane of Mendota, Mrs. Edna Gainer of Los Angeles, Mrs. Lester Johnson of Morris, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benedict, Barbara and Robert of Glen Elllyn and others from Streator, Dana and Toluca.

Mrs. May Love, the daughter of John and Isabella Fraser, was born July 31, 1875 in Arthur, Ontario, Canada. The family moved to Streator in 1884 and the deceased was educated in the Streator schools. She was graduated from the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Chicago in 1906 with its first class of graduates. Her marriage to Dr. Geo. T. Love took place in Streator on May 18, 1910 and they became the parents of one daughter, Louise.

The family lived in Dana where Dr. Love practiced for a short time and also resided in Milwaukee before coming to Wenona in 1915.

Mrs. Love was a member of the Wenona Literary Club, and when in good health was an active member of St. John's Methodist church and its Guild. She was a former member of the choir.

In addition to her daughter, she is survived by her sister Mrs. David Holmes and a brother Walter Fraser, both of Streator, also a brother Geo. Fraser of Houston, Texas. She was preceded in death by three brothers.
