

MRS. PAYNE PASSES AWAY

FORMER STREATOR RESIDENT
STRICKEN SUDDENLY IN KANKAKEE HOME

Mrs. Wilbur Payne, the former Virginia Stotler of this city, died suddenly Sunday at noon in her home at 4 Chatham Circle in Kankakee.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p. m. Wednesday in the Phillips, Friday and Schreffler funeral home, 187 S. Greenwood Ave., Kankakee, with burial in Memorial Gardens, there.

Visitation is being held at the funeral home this afternoon and evening and until the hour of the rites.

Mrs. Payne was born Mar. 15, 1911, in Wenona. Her husband, whom she married Jan. 26, 1935, in Streator, is the managing partner of the Payne-Stotler Grain Co. of Kankakee.

She grew up in Streator and graduated from local schools. Having left this city 12 years ago, she has resided in Kankakee since that time. Mrs. Payne was a member of the Kankakee Kultivators, the First Methodist church, and Alpha Omicron Pi sorority at the University of Illinois.

Surviving in addition to her husband, are two sons, Howard and Bruce, both at home; her mother, Mrs. H. A. Stotler of this city, and two brothers, Kenneth Stotler of Champaign, and Howard of Munich, Germany.
